Here we offer for sale a superb gilt marble topped side table and mirror.

The mirror is of large proportions with an ornately carved gilt leaf frame and marble effect cherubs. It sits on the table and is to be mounted directly against the wall.

The base is similarly carved and has a fixed real carrara marble top.

~~This type of furnishing is properly called a pier table and mirror and was designed to be placed against the wall between two windows.~~

A really good looking piece of furniture; very heavy and top quality.

About 25 years old, removed from a manor house in Worcestershire. Very good condition.
