

Early Victorian Polished Bronze Grand Tour
Bust of Minerva

£0.00

Period	Early/mid 19th c.
Composition	Polished bronze body affixed to marble plinth
Base	12 x 12 cm / 4 3/4 x 4 3/4 in
Height	40 cm / 16 in
Condition	Very good condition commensurate with age. The bronze had been polished to a high finish. Some small nicks to the marble base.

We are very pleased to offer a good looking bust of the Roman goddess of wisdom Minerva.

It was purchased from the estate of a titled family in Herefordshire, having been originally purchased on a Grand Tour of Italy in the nineteenth century. It dates from the early Victorian period.

The body is of bronze and has been polished to a high sheen. Its is affixed to a square black marble base

---

Offered in very good condition commensurate with age.

---