Treasure Trove Worcester
50 Barbourne Road,
Worcester,
Worcestershire
WR1 1JA.

Telephone:
+ 44 (0)1905 799928
Email:
lordcooke@treasuretroveworcester.com

Victorian 'Lipscombe & Co. Patent' Stoneware Water Filter

£0.00

| | |
|---|---|
| Period | Victorian |
| Manufacturer | Lipscombe & Co. |
| Composition | Stoneware |
| Height | 51 cm / 20 in |
| Condition | Very good condition. Minor nicks commensurate with age. Complete with tap. |

19th century stoneware Lipscombe & Co water filter

Of slender ovoid form, buff coloured glazed body. Salt-glazed applied handles with relief white vine garlands, crest and floral decoration.

Inscribed on central panel 'Lipscombe & Co Patentees - 44 Queen St. Mansion House, London, Removed from Temple Bar', Lipscombe & Co., a London firm was renowned for its water filters. The company was established by James Lipscombe in 1790 in the Whittington Pottery, Derbyshire, who merged it with the Derbyshire pottery in 1884.

Treasure Trove Worcester
50 Barbourne Road,
Worcester,
Worcestershire
WR1 1JA.

Telephone:
+ 44 (0)1905 799928
Email:
lordcooke@treasuretroveworcester.com

FREE UK Mainland Delivery.

Please enquire for overseas delivery costs.