Treasure Trove Worcester
50 Barbourne Road,
Worcester,
Worcestershire
WR1 1JA.

Telephone:
+ 44 (0)1905 799928
Email:
lordcooke@treasuretroveworcester.com

19th c. English Oil on Board Hunting Painting "Affair Leap"

£0.00

Period	19th c., English
Medium	Oil on board
Size	29.5 x 24 cm / 11 3/4 x 9 1/2 in
Signed	Unsigned
Frame	Set in small Victorian gilt wood and gesso frame
Condition	Good original condition. Sound paintwork. A very small pin hole to the bottom of the board. A few minor marks to frame in align with age

Small humorous hunting sketch, painted in oil on board, dating from the nineteenth century.

In the background a huntswoman, dressed in black with flowing blonde hair and riding sidesaddle on a chestnut steed, is leaping over a crumbling stone wall. The rider in the foreground, dressed in scarlet with white breeches and brown leather topped black boots, has pulled up his mount to make chase. Titled to the reverse "Affair Leap".

Delicately painted with quick but fine brushstrokes in a lively pallete on an ochre grtound

Treasure Trove Worcester
50 Barbourne Road,
Worcester,
Worcestershire
WR1 1JA.

Telephone:
+ 44 (0)1905 799928
Email:
lordcooke@treasuretroveworcester.com

Set in an antique wood and gesso gilt frame