

Royal Worcester Bronze & Porcelain "Barn Owl" (Domed)

£0.00

|                     |                                                                                        |
|---------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Manufacturer | Royal Worcester                                                                        |
| Title        | Barn Owl                                                                               |
| Series       | Birds of Prey on Bronze (small)                                                        |
| Composition  | Porcelain Sculpture on Bronze & hardwood mount                                         |
| Height       | 20 cm / 8 in                                                                           |
| Modeller     | David Fryer                                                                            |
| Issued       | 1984-1987                                                                              |
| Condition    | Bird, flowers and glass dome excellent, no damage. Plinth and baize in good condition. |